

Organizational Chart

Since 1965 Skagit County Public Hospital District #304 has provided care for the people of northern and eastern Skagit County. Through an operating agreement, PeaceHealth now provides direct medical services. We serve the community at large with programs across six pillars of health and wellbeing under the name United General District 304.